

Scientific programme
following the NAS annual general meeting 18.9.2009
Folkhälsan, Topeliuksenkatu 20, Helsinki

9.00–10.15 Annual general meeting for the delegates of NAS member organizations

Research aids hearing

10.45–11.15 Inner ear gene transfer

professor Jussi Jero, Helsinki University Central Hospital

11.15–11.45 New diagnostic tools for conductive hearing loss

MD, PhD Antti Aarnisalo, Helsinki University Central Hospital

11.45–12.15 Auditory steady state responses as aid for cochlear implant programming

Dipl Ing. Johannes Hautamäki, Helsinki University Central Hospital

12.15–13.00 Frequency tagging in the study of (human) binaural interaction

MD Satu Lamminmäki, Brain Research Unit, Helsinki University of Technology

13.00–14.00 Lunch

Hearing rehabilitation

14.00–15.15 Good hearing rehabilitation

15 minutes for each nordic country

chairman Claes Moller

Denmark: Søren Dalmark, President of The Danish Association of the Hard of Hearing

Finland: Mari Havia, MD, PhD, Kuuloliitto

Iceland: Bryndis Guðmundsdottir

Norway: Ingrid Kristoffersen, Acting President of the Norwegian Association of Audiologists

Sweden: Arne Leijon, professor

15.15–16.00 Panel discussion on hearing rehabilitation

Ilmoittautumiset viimeistään 4.9.2009 osoitteeseen: erna.kentala\(at\)hus.fi

Tämä englanninkielinen koulutus on ilmainen, Folkhälsanin tiloissa on tarjolla omakustanteinen lounas.